

February 19, 2010

The Qualified Allocation Plan has been approved by the Governor as of February 9, 2010.

The Supportive Services documentation that was received on February 16, 2010 for consideration for the 2010 application is currently under review.

APPLICATION REMINDERS

Online Low Income Housing Tax Credit Applications are due on March 15, 2010 at 4:00 p.m.

- If you did not attend the LIHTC Workshop held on January 19, 2010, you are not eligible to submit an application for the 2010 round. Applicants must submit the Certificate of Training Attendance with the project application.
- One application must be submitted online. Note for testing the online application, please use the CD provided at the training, not the internet version.
- One executed original, one copy, and one online submission must be received on or before March 15, 2010 at 4:00 p.m.
- Remember to include your application submission confirmation email receipt with your executed hard copy. Applications submitted without proof of the online submission will not be accepted.
- If you are submitting additional bound paperwork (e.g. Market Study), please include a separate page behind the appropriate tab in the hard copy, indicating what is included separately.

Note**

- Please print your electronic application as your hard copy. The online application must match your hard copy.
- Technical assistance will be available until 12:00 noon on Monday, March 15, 2010.